

Life Group Adult Classes on Sunday Morning

9:15 - 10:30 Classes

Encouragers - Teacher, Bob White; Coed 25 - 39; Room 231

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Eagle Wings – Teacher, Tharon Connally; Coed 35 – 49; Room 122

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Truth Seekers - Teacher, Brian Tom; Coed 40 - 55; Room 232

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Koinonia – Teacher Bill Jones; Coed 50 – 65; Room 233

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Apple Dumpling Gang – Teacher, Dan Hall; Coed 55 – UP; Room 115

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Harvesters – Teacher, Gary Turner; Coed 55 – UP; Room 110

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Hospitality – Teacher, Benny Jenkins; Coed 60 – UP; Room 112

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Disciplers – Teacher, David Johnson; Coed 60 –UP; Room 121

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Open Bible – Teacher, Gayle Harris; Single/ Coed 40 – UP; Room 116

Curriculum – Life Values, This resource equips adults in the baby boomer generation to put into practice practical values developed from the Bible. This resource is intentionally biblically deep, offering ways learners can discover the truth for themselves so there is a higher chance for transformation.

Faith – Teacher, Al Mansell; Coed 65 – UP; Room 114

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

10:45 – 12:00 Classes

Young Married – Teacher, Justin Bond; Coed 18 – 29; Room 122

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

LifeTruths – Teacher, Drew Altom; Coed/Single 30 – 44; Room 231

Curriculum - Life Truths is designed with the understanding that parents lead impossibly busy lives. It's geared toward strengthening individuals, couples, and entire families. Written for parents by parents - Who knows better how relying on the truth of God's Word improves the parenting experience?

In The Word – Teacher, Dave Phelps; Coed 30 – 44; Room 231

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Ambassadors – Teacher, Lance McCutchen; Coed 35 – 55; Room 117

Curriculum - Life Lessons curriculum helps guide adults of all ages in Spirit-empowered, life-changing Bible study. It also helps in the development of godly values, growth in biblical knowledge and understanding, and the pursuit of Christlike excellence.

Krystos Agape – Teacher, Roy Blackwell; Coed 40-50; Room 232

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.

Sonshine – Teacher, Bo Black; Coed 45 – 59; Room 112

Curriculum – Book study through Revelation at this time.

College Age – Teacher, Dennis Partrich; Single 18 – 24; Room 215

Curriculum – Life Matters, Why don't young adults like Sunday School? Actually, they do. What they don't like is a lecture about what the Bible says. What they want is LifeMatters—solid Bible study connected to real life.

Singles/Career – Teacher, Chris Seay; Single 25 – 35; Room 212

Curriculum – Life Matters, Why don't young adults like Sunday School? Actually, they do. What they don't like is a lecture about what the Bible says. What they want is LifeMatters—solid Bible study connected to real life.

Women of Worth – Teacher, Debbie Johnson; Ladies 26 – 59; Room 116

Curriculum – “MasterWork” provides challenging, Christ-centered Bible study material along with a modern perspective from today’s most respected Christian leaders. Renowned authors such as Charles Swindoll, Randy Alcorn, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, and others draw learners to a deeper level of involvement through daily personal study, weekly group interaction, and key life messages.

Faithful Workers – Teacher Maxine Graham; Ladies 60 – UP; Room 114

Curriculum - Explore the Bible uses a balanced, systematic approach to teach adults God's Word. During our current eight-year plan, Sunday School members will study every book of the Bible, alternating between the Old and New Testaments. The lessons highlight major themes and truths in weekly Scripture passages, encouraging personal study and life application.