

Network Building Worksheet

A. Define “Network.”

In other words, is it simply a list of friends and important people or is there more to it?

B. List some useful connections you have and describe why you feel they are useful.

C. What is your strategy for developing your network? Establish some goals for the development of your network.

Number of people or position of people may qualify.

D. Networking builds your credibility. Who do you know that can add to your credibility?

E. Evaluate your social media feeds. Do your social media feeds build your credibility or hinder it?

In other words, check your likes, your comments, and your activity to insure it is a fitting impression.
